

(1982) Vintage Italian handmade Schooner

The boat has been restored for the last 4 years with special care and love and now the boat is a masterpiece in the category of Classic boats. Specifically, the engine was overhauled 12 months ago, as well as its peripherals (turbo, injectors, pumps, alternator, and batteries) and replacement in various auxiliary machines of the boat (workers, water pumps, etc.) all with new ones. Varnishes were done both internally and externally.
